For families of rational maps of the complex plane of the form $z^n + \lambda/z^d$, there are a number of different structures in both the dynamical and parameter planes of these families. In this talk we describe some of these objects, including Cantor necklaces, satellites around the McMullen domain, and circles of Sierpinski holes.